

REPORT OF ANTI RAGGING PROGRAMME 2025

The Shillong College Anti-Ragging Cell on the 18th of August, 2025 conducted an awareness programme as part of the observation of the National Anti-Ragging Week. Under the theme “Say No to Ragging” the programme aimed at sensitising the student community of the college on the Anti Ragging Act, to encourage acceptance and harmony and create a healthy educational environment in the institution.

The Joint Convener of the Anti Ragging Cell Mr. M.W. Synrem while welcoming the Resource person highlighted on the existence of the Anti -Ragging Cell in the college from 2013.

JOINT CONVENER DELIVERING THE WELCOME ADDRESS

The Principal of the college Dr S. Khongwir after welcoming the Resource person Dr. D. Mawlong, Assistant Professor, Shillong Law College urged the students to pay attention to her presentation. In his short address he stressed on the adverse effects of ragging on the holistic development and progress of students. Commenting on the programme he stated that such programmes as this are organised not only for awareness purposes but are also aimed at facilitating character building and promoting a peaceful and harmonious coexistence among students in the college. Pointing out that no reports of ragging were reported in Shillong College till date he lauded the Anti-Ragging Cell for taking proactive steps and measures in ensuring a ragging-free environment.

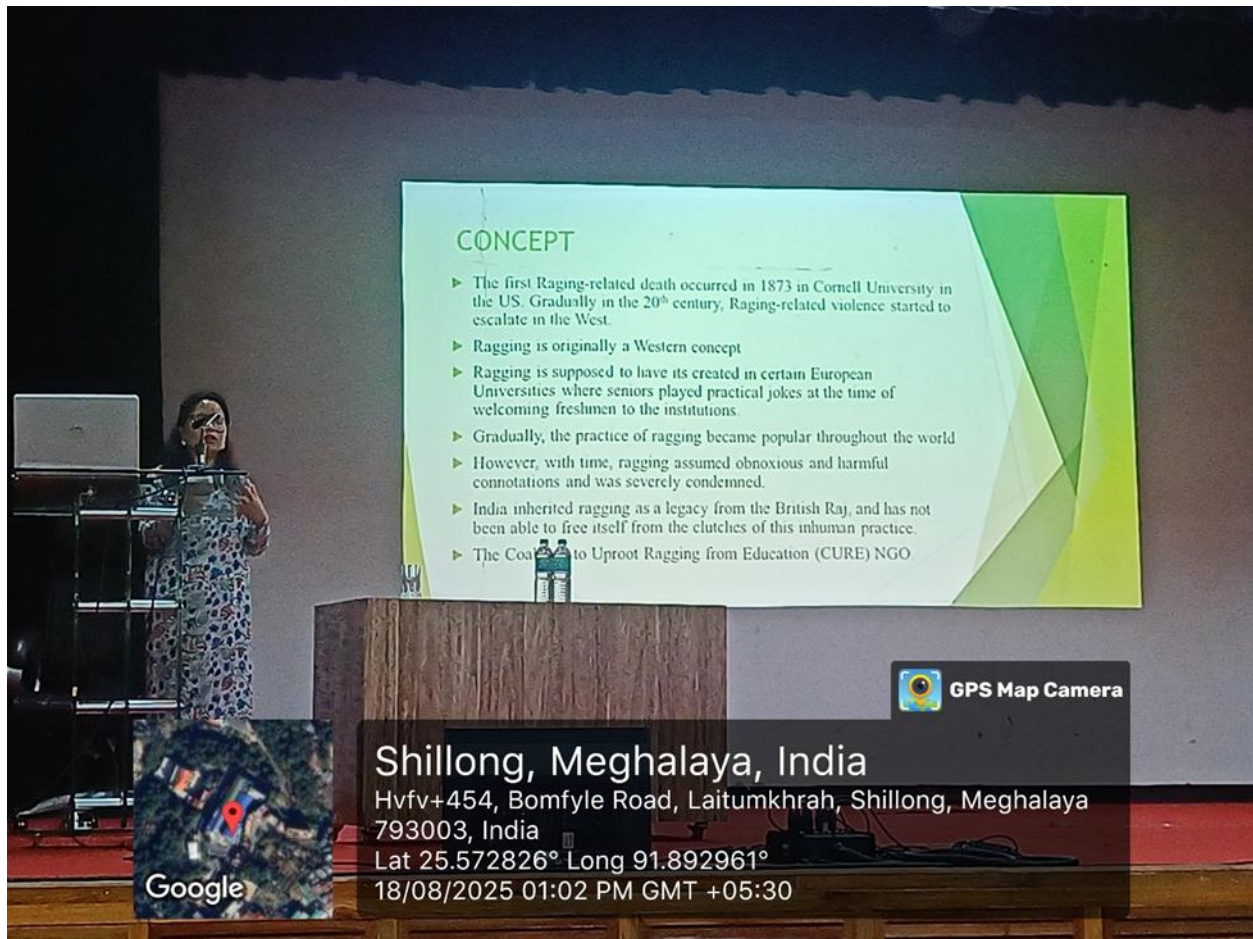

PRINCIPAL FELICITATING THE RESOURCE PERSON AND DELIVERING HIS SPEECH

The programme was conducted session wise in both the College Auditorium for all newly joined First semester students as well as the hostellers of Shillong College Womens' hostel.

In the sessions held during the day the resource person Dr. D. Mawlong highlighted on the acts that constitute or can be regarded as a form of ragging. While stating that in earlier decades ragging was a western concept, pointed out that ragging is no longer alien in the Indian subcontinent especially in other parts of mainland India.

RESOURCE PERSON DR. D. MAWLONG ADDRESSING THE STUDENTS

She also related to history pointing out to the cases of ragging which drew the attention of the judiciary and the government that subsequently led to the passing of the Anti- Ragging Act in India. She also emphasized that as part of the Prohibition of Ragging in educational institutions the central government through the University Grants Commission as well as the state government has made it mandatory for students of higher educational institutions to fill the online undertaking. Her comprehensive knowledge and expert deliberation on the subject matter greatly benefitted the target audience.

SECOND SESSION

STUDENTS AT THE THIRD SESSION

In the interactive session that followed each of the sessions students posed questions to the Resource Person on the laws that are in place to curb ragging in educational institutions. The Convener of the Cell Ms.A. B.Basaiawmoit delivered the vote of thanks at the end of the entire programme.

VOTE OF THANKS BY CONVENER

In the afternoon a similar programme was organised at the Shillong College Womens' Hostel. The Joint Convener Ms.P Kharkrang welcomed the hostellers and the Resource Person. In her address the Vice Principal (Academic and Students Matter) addressed the hostellers on the need to be aware about the Anti- Ragging Act.

VICE PRINCIPAL ADDRESSING HOSTELLERS

She also pointed in her address on the zero tolerance of Ragging. The Resource Person in this session in the hostel gave an informal talk explaining to the hostellers about the difference between ragging and bullying.

She also urged the hostellers to not indulge in any of these acts as they affect the mental health of an individual.

Awareness on anti-ragging at city college

By Our Reporter

SHILLONG, Aug 18: The Shillong College Anti-Ragging Cell on Monday conducted an awareness programme as part of the National Anti-Ragging Week observance under the theme "Say No to Ragging." The programme sought to sensitise students on the provisions of the Anti-Ragging Act, promote acceptance and harmony, and foster a healthy educational environment within the institution.

In his address, resource person Dr D Mawlong, Assistant Professor of Shillong Law College, emphasised the adverse effects of ragging on the holistic development and progress of students. He noted that such programmes are not only about creating awareness but also about building character and encouraging peaceful coexistence among the student community.

Pointing out that Shillong College has so far remained free from any reported incidents of ragging, he commended the Anti-Ragging Cell for its proactive role in ensuring a safe and conducive environment on campus.

During the sessions held at the College Auditorium, Mawlong outlined the acts and behaviours that constitute ragging. She explained that while ragging had its origins in the West, it is no longer alien to the Indian subcontinent, particularly in several parts of mainland India. She further emphasised that, as part of the Prohibition of Ragging in Educational Institutions, both the Central Government through the University Grants Commission and the State Government have made it mandatory for all students of higher educational institutions to submit an online anti-ragging undertaking. (Contd on P-7)

Assembly committee inspects long-pending...

(Contd from P-3) Speaking after the inspection, Committee Chairman Syiem said the exercise was part of the panel's mandate to monitor stalled projects across the district. "We will continue to follow up so that these projects move forward and are completed at the earliest for the benefit of students, the public and the people of the region as a whole," he said.

Awareness on anti-ragging...

(Contd from P-3) The sessions saw an attentive audience, with students actively engaging in an interactive segment where they posed questions to the resource person regarding laws and measures in place to curb ragging in educational institutions.

It was also announced that another awareness programme on anti-ragging, specifically for postgraduate students, will be organised by the college in September.

BANNER OF THE PROGRAMME:

The banner features the Shillong College logo on the left, which includes a lamp and the motto "विद्या विन्दतेमृतम्" (Vidya vindate mritam) and "SHILLONG" with "KNOWLEDGE IS IMMORTAL" below it. The background is a collage of people with raised fists and a sign that says "Stop". There are several red 'X' marks overlaid on the banner, including a large one in the top right corner and another over the word "No" in the main text.
