The programme started with a welcome speech delivered by the principal of Grace Care School, followed by a speech from the HOD, Mrs. A. Mitri, to address the objective of the campaign, highlighting the basic need for computers for modern educational requirements. The session was started by the instructors giving the students some knowledge on computer basics and showing them how it works practically. Because there were only three laptops, students were divided into groups, with each group assigned two instructors to teach both theory and practical. The students were taught about the computer's hardware and software, which include the operating system, the internet, and computer devices. The students also learned about Microsoft Paint, Microsoft Word, how to save files, how to make folders, how to type, etc. The students were very excited and fully participated in learning as these facilities were lacking in the school. The day ended by us asking the student question and whether or not they have understood. The team departed from Mawlai at 2:00 p.m.
