

I. Event: Webinar

Report: Two day webinar: The Co-curricular academic development committee arranged a two day webinar on the 5th and 6th of October 2021 to celebrate Wildlife week 2021. The programme was organized in collaboration with the Office of the Divisional Forest Officer, Khasi Hills Wildlife Division, Shillong. The guest speaker was Smt. Anu P. James, IFS, Divisional Forest Officer, Khasi Hills Wildlife Division, Shillong, Meghalaya. Her talk on the first day was on “Importance of Wildlife Conservation”.

On the second day of the webinar Smt. Anu P. James gave a talk on “World of Indian Forest Service” Smt. James began by describing the milieu of the Civil Services Examination and the benefits as well as challenges facing those who clear it. She described the eligibility criteria and the different sectors and areas which become open to those who complete the examination successfully.

She also outlined the stages of the examination and the rigours and challenges that an aspirant must expect to face at each juncture. Quite notably, she dwelt upon the features and importance of the personality test and the need for aspirants to demonstrate a level of integrity par excellence.

Shri. B. H. Diengdoh then thanked the resource person and opened the interaction session. Students and faculty alike engaged with Smt. James in a session after which Shri. Diengdoh proposed the Vote of Thanks, called upon Dr. Eva Pala to give the closing remarks, and then concluded the programme.

Students and faculty who attended the webinar were given e-certificates.
