Report on the Celebration of Ambedkar Jayanti 2020

To commemorate the 129th birth Anniversary of Dr B.R.Ambedkar, the Department of Political Science, Shillong College organised a slogan and poster competition on the theme 'Fundamental Duties' for all honours students of the department in March 2020. The objective of the programme is to celebrate the life of Dr Ambedkar and acknowledge his contribution towards nation building. The programme also aim at developing a spirit of patriotism and brotherhood amongst the students.

Observance of Constitution Day-26th Nov 2021

To observe the Constitution Day also known as Samvidhan Divas on the 26th of November 2021 and to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India, the Department of Political Science held a pledge taking and reading of the Preamble. Due to the ongoing pandemic and following Government protocols, only 50 students were included in the programme. Before the pledge was taken, Smt. A.Marbaniang, Assistant Professor of the Department talk about the significance and relevance of the Constitution Day to our present day youth. She also highlighted on what the Constitution is and our role as citizens. Thus, the objective of organising the programme was to create awareness about the Constitution and to sensitise the students about the importance and relevance of Constitution Day.

I. Event: Webinar

Report: Two day webinar: The Co-curricular academic development committee arranged a two day webinar on the 5th and 6th of October 2021 to celebrate Wildlife week 2021. The programme was organized in collaboration with the Office of the Divisional Forest Officer, Khasi Hills Wildlife Division, Shillong. The guest speaker was Smt. Anu P. James, IFS, Divisional Forest Officer, Khasi Hills Wildlife Division, Shillong, Meghalaya. Her talk on the first day was on “Importance of Wildlife Conservation”. The session was opened by Dr. E. M. Pala, the Convener of the Co-curricular and Academic Committee, Shillong College, who welcomed all the attendees and introduced the speaker, Smt. Anu P. James.

Dr. Pala then handed the session over to Smt. James. Smt. James began by explaining the context of the current presentation, elucidating the reasons behind the holding of such a programme. She then explained the history of Wildlife week, and wildlife conservation in India in general. She explained the aims and objectives of Wildlife week and the importance of such a celebration to the cause of conservation.

Smt. James then showcased several important species found in Meghalaya, including the state animal, the Clouded Leopard (Neofelis nebulosa), the state bird, the Hill Myna (Gracula religiosa) the state tree, Gmelina arborea and rare endemic species such as Citrus indica and Nepenthes khasiana. She spoke about the unique biodiversity that Meghalaya has been blessed with, and urgent need to protect it. Other highlights of her lecture included the status of certain parts of Meghalaya as sites for the roosting of the Amur Falcon (Falco amurensis).

Smt. James then went on to elucidate the roles and functions of the Wildlife Wing of the Indian Forest Service, outlining its role in bringing about the identification, conservation and protection of the floral and faunal diversity of the state. Such functions include the management of protected areas (PAs), reduction and mitigation of Human-Wildlife Conflicts and curbing of such activities as poaching and illegal wildlife trade, among others.

Smt. James brought her lecture to a close while emphasizing the need to create awareness among local communities about the biological, social and cultural importance of wildlife and the need to protect it.

The lecture was then followed by a session of interaction between the resource person, faculty and students. Once concluded, the resource person was thanked by Dr. Pala, who then brought the session to a close.

On the second day of the webinar Smt. Anu P. James gave a talk on “World of Indian Forest Service” The session was opened by Shri. B.H. Diengdoh, Member, the Co-curricular and Academic Committee, Shillong College, who welcomed all the attendees, gave a brief recap of the previous day’s session and once again introduced the speaker, Smt. Anu P. James, IFS, Divisional Forest Officer, Khasi Hills Wildlife Division, Shillong.

Shri. Diengdoh then handed over the session to Smt. James. Smt. James began by describing the milieu of the Civil Services Examination and the benefits as well as challenges facing those who clear it. She described the eligibility criteria and the different sectors and areas which become open to those who complete the examination successfully.

She also outlined the stages of the examination and the rigours and challenges that an aspirant must expect to face at each juncture. Quite notably, she dwelt upon the features importance of the personality test and the need for aspirants to demonstrate a level of integrity par excellence.

With the stage set, Smt. James then went on to describe the different features, tests, challenges of the Indian Forest Service Exam and outlined the basics of how an aspirant might prepare for it. She elucidated the basic eligibility criteria, the phases of the exam, the different papers that must be completed as well as the personality and fitness tests.

Having impressed upon all attending, the importance of the Forest Service, the rigours of the testing method, and the need for dedication and determination during the preparatory phase and throughout the duration of the training for those who pass, she then brought her lecture to a close.

Shri. B. H. Diengdoh then thanked the resource person and opened the interaction session. Students and faculty alike engaged with Smt. James in a session after which Shri. Diengdoh proposed the Vote of Thanks, called upon Dr. Eva Pala to give the closing remarks, and then concluded the programme.

Students and faculty who attended the webinar were given e-certificates.

Sub: Request for sending a Debating Team to represent your Esteemed Institution.

Dear Madam/Sir,

It gives us immense delight to inform you that Shillong Commerce College will be organizing the 1st Rev. J.J.M. Nichols Roy Memorial Inter College Debate Competition on the 14th December 2021.

The motion for the Debate is:

"Inner Line Permit will Protect the Indigenous people of Meghalaya with regards to their Identity".

It is our humble request to you to send a team of Two Debaters (One to speak for the Motion & the other against) from your esteemed institution. Kindly confirm the participation of your institution, by forwarding the names of the participants, latest by the 10th December 2021, to the Principal's Office.

We look forward to your enthusiastic participation in this event.

Thanking you in anticipation.

Yours Sincerely,

S.S.
(Dr. (Mrs.) S. Sen)
